

Name:

Period:

Date:

Day 1: Match the description to the appropriate word. (Due Tuesday)

Word:	Description:
_____Terrestrial
_____Atmosphere	A. A mixture of gases that surrounds a planet, moon, or other celestial body
_____Inertia	B. The force that holds objects in place
_____Gravity	C. Made of gas
_____Satellite	D. The name for rocky planets nearest to the Sun: Mercury, Venus, Earth, Mars
_____Astronomical Unit	E. A natural or artificial body that revolves (goes around) another space object
_____Gaseous	F. The average distances between Earth and the sun (150 million kilometers)
_____Planet	G. The tendency for an object at rest to stay at rest and an object in motion to stay in motion
	H. A large sphere that orbits a star

Day 2 (Due Wednesday)

Re-write the definition of each word in YOUR OWN words. DO NOT RE-WRITE the description above. EX: An earthquake is when Earth shakes as a result of tectonic plates hitting each other.

Or use the word in the sentence. EX: In 1755, an earthquake shook Lisbon and destroyed most of the city.

Planet
Terrestrial
Gaseous
Satellite

Day 3 (Due Thursday)

Re-write the definition of each word in YOUR OWN words. DO NOT RE-WRITE the description above. EX: An earthquake is when Earth shakes as a result of tectonic plates hitting each other.

Or use the word in the sentence. EX: In 1755, an earthquake shook Lisbon and destroyed most of the city.

Inertia
Gravity
Atmosphere
Astronomical Unit

Day 4 (Due Friday):

Write the vocabulary word on the line. Then draw a diagram (picture with labels) of each word.

_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

